

Organization for TRANSFORMATIVE WORKS

What is the Organization for Transformative Works?

We are a nonprofit organization created to oversee several projects, including legal assistance for fans, the fandom wiki Fanlore, and the academic fan journal Transformative Works and Cultures.

ARCHIVE OF OUR OWN

Currently underway is the Archive Of Our Own project, aimed at providing a noncommercial and nonprofit central hosting place for fanfic and other transformative fanworks. We are creating a new open-source software package to allow fans to host their own archives, small or large, which will have the social networking features to make it easier for fans to connect to one another through their work. Visit us at archiveofourown.org.

HOW CAN I GET INVOLVED?

The OTW is looking for volunteers and always welcomes feedback from fellow fans! To find out more, e-mail our Volunteers committee at volunteers@transformativeworks.org or visit our website, transformativeworks.org, and click on "How You Can Help."

I HAVE QUESTIONS. HOW CAN I CONTACT YOU?

E-mail our Communications committee at communications@transformativeworks.org! We also maintain updates on our blog at transformativeworks.org, as well as various journaling services, Yahoo Groups, Twitter, del.icio.us, and other networks.
